

---

Things to do over Summer Break

Besides wasting time playing video games and checking facebook, here are some productive ways to stay busy over summer break.

- Find a Job
Get College Credit this Summer:

Enter Your Zip Code:

- Do a Summer Internship

>> See Available Internships

- Apply for college scholarships

- Watch a movie

>> Browse Amazon Best Sellers

- Plan out next years class schedule.

- Get paid to take surveys. For more info visit CashCrate and Ipsos.

- Explore and visit other colleges, should you choose to go on to Law School or get an MBA.

- Read a Book - They say the difference between yourself now versus a year from now is 3 books you will read over the course of that year.

>> Browse Amazon Best Sellers

- Organize - Organize old work from throughout the school year, so you can easily come back to it.

- Recreation - Join a summer league of your favorite sport: softball, volleyball, basketball, etc.

- Learn New Things - Just because you are on summer break doesn't mean you have to stop learning.

- Get Up - Become an early riser. Get the things you need done in the mornings so you can enjoy your evenings.

- Get Out - Get some sun, it's good for you, and hey...it's summer break!

- Have a Family Reunion - Family time is always quality time...well almost always (Never mind that annoying brother or sister).

- Help Others - From neighbors to the elderly. You'll feel better about yourself afterwards.

- Take an online class.

>> Search available courses

- Learn a new language.

- Find a Hobby

- Study Abroad

- Travel - See the world. Take a Summer Break Cruise.

>> Browse Priceline Pricebreaker Deals

- Build a loft bed for your dorm room

- Ride a Bike - Save gas.